Section 5: Folio

In order for your selection task to be considered, you must include a folio of work.

You must submit a folio which comprises 6 – 10 pages of your work demonstrating your interests and creative and conceptual thinking. It should reflect your design, problem solving and technical skills in some or all of the following: Examples of projects include:

- research for design ideas

- sketching, drawing

- exploration of materials

- exploration of methods of making design objects

Your folio should include evidence of how ideas were developed as well as finished work. Include work that shows how you document your ideas and creative thinking and any work that demonstrates your potential to follow a design process.

You can include work from secondary school, previous study and personal or work-related design experience (including sketchbooks), and the work can come from a variety of discipline areas (e.g. fashion, homewares, design, wearable art, illustrations, accessories, photography).

Submission instructions
- Upload your folio as a single PDF (maximum size 10MB).

Or

- Provide a URL to your folio if hosted online (please provide the username and password if applicable). The folio work must be contained and visible on one webpage.

Under each image provide a brief explanation, including the purpose and background of the work (maximum 50 words).
