

International Student Barometer 2025 survey results

Overall Satisfaction

91.18%

Up 0.21% on 2023

Net Promoter Score

24

Up 3 on 2023

AU Average: 17 Global average: 21

Career goal preparation

Up 10.77% on 2023

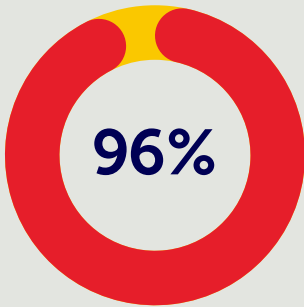

92% satisfaction with orientation and social activities, up 3% since 2023.

88% satisfaction with introduction to campus facilities, up 5% since 2023.

97% satisfaction with student equity. Up 3% since 2023.

Feel safe and secure on campus

Areas to improve

What you said

International students are experiencing financial hardship which affects their ability to meet basic needs and sustain financial wellbeing.

Students have identified opportunities for greater consistency in learning experiences, educator capability, and assessment practices across teaching teams.

Students have identified opportunities to improve the responsiveness of services and the ease of accessing support.

Students have a desire for increased practical and experiential learning opportunities alongside theoretical content.

What we're doing

RMIT is actively working on improving support for learners by reducing barriers to participation, wellbeing and access.

RMIT is prioritising supporting educators, strengthening learning and teaching practices, scaling innovative learning models and ensuring educators are equipped to succeed alongside their students.

RMIT is investing in improving student support and reducing barriers to accessing services.

RMIT's Knowledge with Action strategy puts the focus on industry-connected education, authentic assessment, applied learning and partnerships with employers.

3,334 international students at RMIT responded to the survey

