

RMIT Accounting Educators' Conference 2022

Program

Monday 28 November 2022

CPA Australia Melbourne Office, Level 20, 28 Freshwater Pl, Southbank
From 8.30am	Registration open. Coffee and Tea available!
9.00am – 9.30am	Welcome to AEC 2022 Dr Meredith Tharapos and Dr Pavithra Siriwardhane, Conference Convenors Acknowledgement of Country Conference Opening Professor Robyn Moroney, Head, Department of Accounting, RMIT University Karen Hellwig, Executive General Manager Member Education, CPA Australia
9.30 am – 10.30am	Plenary Presentation Dr Keith Kendall, Chair, Australian Accounting Standards Board Sustainability Reporting: Where to from here?
10.30am – 11.00am	Morning Refreshments
Concurrent Sessions	Professional Skills Seminar Room 1	SDG's in Curricula Seminar Room 2	Assessment & Curricula Seminar Room 3
Chair	Suraiyah Akbar	Sonia Magdziarz	Clara Nkhoma
11.00am – 11.30am	Implementation of online discussion boards to enhance professional skills and business-news-habits of accounting students Edward Tello Melendez, Monash University	Accounting post-graduate student views on the usefulness of a course teaching the United Nations sustainable development goals Abdel K Halabi, Federation University	Student engagement with instructor-generated video Karen McBride, University of Portsmouth, UK* *Online presenter
11.30am – 12.00pm	Accounting education for Gen-Z: Lessons from student co-creation Daniela Juric, Monash University	Enhancing the incorporation of sustainability accounting in accounting education in Australian universities: the perspective of academic staff Marie Kavanagh, University of Southern Queensland	Higher order cognitive skills in accounting education: An Australian case study Seedwell Sithole, University of Tasmania
12.00pm – 12.30pm	Engaging generation Greta in accounting teaching Jennifer Rose, University of Manchester, UK	SDG 8 and modern slavery: An accounting education curriculum Christine Helliard, University of South Australia	The role of accounting in society after the Covid-19 pandemic: Future directions of accounting education Farzaneh Jalali, Latrobe University
12.30pm – 1.00pm	International accounting graduates (IAG) employment intentions and outcomes in Tasmania Youyin Yu, University of Tasmania	Empower the future eco-warriors (Accountants) by embedding SDGs into active learning case studies (curriculum and assessments) Xingdong Yan, Accounting Pod	Accounting curricula, climate crisis and carbon net-zero transition Amrinder Khosa, University of Tasmania

1.00pm – 1.45pm	Lunch
Concurrent Sessions	SDG's in Curricula Seminar Room 1	Professional Skills Seminar Room 2	Student Engagement Seminar Room 3
Chair	Lina Xu	Prabashi Dharmasiri	Kevin Thai
1.45pm – 2.15pm	Integrity of assessments in challenging times Lorena Mitrione, Monash University	Ethics education and serious games Clara Nkhoma & Sonia Magdziarz, RMIT University	Outcomes from the office of student success Nicola Beatson, University of Otago
2.15pm – 2.45pm	Adopting collaborative learning to facilitate case-based learning: the case of an environmental management accounting course Thuy Thanh Tran, University of Kassel, Germany* Online presenter	Communication skills in accounting: Awareness and fear Martin Turner, Central Queensland University *Online presenter	Introducing indigenous perspectives into the accounting curriculum: An initiative for a national set of educational resources Amanda White, University of Technology Sydney
2.45pm – 3.15pm	Reviewing the status of teaching sustainability accounting in accounting classrooms: Jordanian study Merwiyeh Alaqrabaw, Hashemite University, Jordan* Online presenter	An analysis of students' text-based interactions while collaboratively reading and annotating a financial reporting standard Cecile Janse van Rensburg, University of Pretoria, South Africa Online presenter	Cultural intelligence in the transnational teaching of accounting in Vietnam Ha Nguyen, RMIT University, Vietnam *Online presenter
3.15pm – 3.45pm	Afternoon Refreshments
3.45pm – 4.45pm	Panel Discussion Chair: Associate Professor Gillian Vesty, RMIT University ESG: Opportunity or minefield? Terence Jeyaretnam - APAC Leader & Partner, Climate Change & Sustainability, EY Subhash Abhyawansa - Associate Professor in Accounting, Swinburne University of Technology Patrick Viljoen - Senior Manager ESG – Policy and Advocacy, CPA Australia Jason Leonard - Partner, IBM Consulting, Australia/New Zealand
4.45pm – 5.00pm	Closing Address Dr Meredith Tharapos and Dr Pavithra Siriwardhane, RMIT University
5.00pm – 6.00pm	Networking Drinks

