Applicant Declaration

In submitting my application to RMIT, I acknowledge & agree:

- I am bound by RMIT's policies, rules & regulations, & charters and statements regarding conduct as updated.
- I am responsible for all information, supporting evidence or material included in my application. I confirm that my application is accurate, correct & complete. If portfolio works, personal statements or answers to questions are submitted via my application, they are my own & original, not copied. RMIT may retain the documents, information & material submitted through my application. Hardcopies of materials may not be returned. My application does not infringe any other person's rights or contravene any applicable rules or laws.
- If any material or information in my application is misleading, inaccurate, incorrect, incomplete, or if my application is unlawful or in breach of any applicable rules or laws, my application or any offer or enrolment may be withdrawn, suspended, cancelled, or refused, at any stage.
- RMIT may make changes to course & program offerings, fees, qualifications & pre-requisites, & will notify me as soon as possible of relevant changes; but not all courses & programs may be available as planned or communicated.
- I have read & understood RMIT's Privacy Statement which sets out how RMIT collects, uses & stores personal information; & I agree to my information being managed in accordance with it.
- I consent to being contacted by RMIT, & receiving information, electronically & by phone (primarily via email & the enrolment portal, but also via text).
- I consent to RMIT contacting other organisations or persons for information about my application, including verification. This includes contacting other relevant government authorities.
- I consent to RMIT providing information about me (including personal information) regarding my application to other relevant authorities or organisations, including government, health, or education authorities.
- My application to study is a genuine one. I have taken into consideration the information available to me at the time of applying, & my career goals, in making application to study in my nominated program.
- If I am sponsored, I consent to RMIT sharing information about my application and visa related information, such as overseas student health cover, enrolment, progress & results, with my sponsor (including through a third-party agent).
- If I am seeking to study in a partnered program or delivery arrangement, I consent to RMIT sharing information about my application, enrolment, progress & results, with my home institution or university (including through a third-party agent).
- I acknowledge that RMIT may inform others, including government agencies, of this information, which may result in the cancellation of my student visa and other actions.
- I consent to RMIT undertaking checks, including reference & ID checks, confirming my Visa status using Australian government systems (including VEVO), & confirming information about me with Australian, State & other government or regulatory authorities under the ESOS Act; as well as contacting other governments & foreign representatives in relation to my application & enrolment. I confirm that persons or organisations who are named in my application have consented to being contacted by RMIT in relation to it.
- Application fees are non-refundable, & my application cannot be assessed by RMIT until the fee is paid, or otherwise waived by RMIT.

☑ I understand and accept the above conditions.*
