Section 4: Statements

Please provide:

1. An example of an activity or task you have been involved in that was carried out by a group of people working as a team. This may be a media production related activity or any other activity including employment, sports team or special interest group you have been an active part of (maximum 150 words).

2. A description of an activity, task or project that you have initiated and carried out independently without being directly supervised by a teacher, employer, family member or mentor (maximum 150 words).

3. A description of a verbal presentation you have given to people and explain the purpose of this presentation and how you prepared for it. This presentation may have been for any occasion you wish to describe (maximum 150 words).

4. A statement outlining your level of ability with any film, video or audio production equipment with which you have had any experience. Please list these equipment, hardware and software items and rate your ability with each as either: novice/beginner, competent, fairly proficient, confident, very capable, professionally experienced, or professionally expert (maximum 150 words).

Section 5: Visual Communication Exercise

A visual communication sequence exercise:

- You will be given a single key word for this challenge and asked to convey the meaning or an illustration of this word in a specific visual form. The key word is 'Strategy'. The form must be four images arranged together into a single sequence to convey or illustrate the word you have been given. Aim to make your sequence understandable to a wide audience.
- This task is a visual thinking challenge so there must be no written text, captions, signs, thought bubbles, etc. included. It must be purely visual. You can think of it as a storyboard. The aim is to create a visual story idea that will have a recognisable logic for your audience.
- This is not a test of your ability to draw. Stick figures are acceptable. This is an opportunity to show your ability to think in pictures.
