Associate Degree in Screen and Media Production

Section 4: Selection Task QuestionsQuestion 1

What interests you about the field of screen media production and what do you hope to gain from studying in this program.

Maximum 250 words

Question 2

Provide details of any experience you have with screen and media production and technology. Describe your familiarity with specific video production equipment and post-production software. Detail any work experience or formal/informal learning if relevant. You may also include URLs of work you have been involved in. If the URL is to a private page or folder, please provide the password.

Maximum 250 words

Question 3

Describe a work task/project where you were unsupervised with a large degree of independence that required successful team work to achieve. Describe what you were responsible for, what abilities and skills it required of you and challenges you had to overcome. Maximum 250 words.

AD017Associate Degree in Screen and Media Production

Question 4

The Major Production Capstone in the final semester of the program requires you work as part of a multidisciplinary team to create a filmed screen production. Describe what you may hope to produce for your capstone screen product and why. Include detail of the intended audience and the type of production (Short form narrative, documentary, music video, TV Studio production).

Maximum 250 words.

Section 5: Storyboard Exercise

Create a three-frame story board reflecting the theme word “trust”.

The storyboard should progressively tell a story with a beginning, middle and end, and be driven by the theme word.

It should also be easily understood by an audience. Imagine each frame as a scene in a film and think along the lines of story progression.

There is to be no dialogue or captioning included in this exercise - it is purely visual narrative. This is not a test of your drawing skills, stick figures are fine.

Submission instructions:

- Upload your storyboard. File must not exceed 5MB.

OR

- Provide a URL to your storyboard. If the URL is to a private page or folder, please provide the password.
