3. Complete this selection task and upload it with your online application.

SECTION 3: Further information

Contact: School of Design

Email: industrial.design@rmit.edu.au

Each selection task will be considered as part of the selection process. The following information is used to help us evaluate whether you have the necessary qualities to undertake our program.

Please note that this selection task is retained as part of official RMIT records. Selection tasks will not be returned to applicants. If you wish to retain a record of your work, please make a copy for yourself.

SECTION 4: Applicant statement

Why do you want to study Industrial Design at RMIT?

We want to know more about you, including extra curricular activities or any work experience you have completed. If you are not currently completing year 12, include what you have been doing since finishing secondary school. Please do not limit yourself to design related activities, we are interested in a broad range of experiences (maximum 350 words).

SECTION 5: Folio submission

In order for your selection task to be considered, you must include a folio of work

We would like you to provide a folio of projects or activities that demonstrate the breadth and depth of your interests and experiences. This could include projects undertaken within formal study, hobbies, and volunteer or paid work, or any relevant activity that gives an insight into your design capabilities.

Choose one of the folio options below:

Option 1: Design projects

Provide 3 -5 projects of work. Each project file must include the following:

- The title of the project and the year(s) with an image of the finished work
- A short description of the work (if you don't know what to write start with What is it, Why did I do it and How did I do it?) 50-100 words
- Research or inspiration (1-2 pages)
- Sketching or Concept models (1-3) pages
- Development of the final outcome- some process of making, including evidence of creative problem solving and 3D skills. This can be more refined models or prototypes, CAD or other software programs (2-4 pages)
- Final Outcome (1-2 pages) with self reflection on project

Folio submission:

- Images: Upload each project as a single PDF (landscape format). Maximum size 4MB.
- If the work is film or sound based, ensure that file types are common (maximum size 4MB).

OR

- Provide a URL to your folio (please provide the password if applicable).

Option 2: Life or work experience

If you have done paid or volunteer work or have life experience that you think is worth showing you may want to describe and/or visualise those outcomes or experiences. This can be one project or a number of different experiences, but should include examples relevant to industrial design that exhibit creative problem solving and 3D skills.

Folio submission:

- Images: Upload each project as a single PDF (landscape format). Maximum size 4MB.
- If the work is film or sound based, ensure that file types are common (maximum size 4MB).

OR

- Provide a URL to your folio (please provide the password if applicable).

SECTION 6: Privacy notice and applicant declaration

Privacy notice

RMIT University is providing you with this notice because RMIT University is seeking personal information about you in this form to fully and properly assess your application for study and administer any subsequent enrolment in accordance with its policies and procedures.

The information you provide on this form and during enrolment may be made available to the Australian Government, State Agencies and other designated authorities under the ESOS Act 2000, ESOS Regulations 2001 and the National Code.

Information about you can be disclosed without consent where authorised or required by law.

RMIT University's policies require that the information on this form be supplied. Please note that failure to do so, or to supply only part of it, may result in your application being unable to be considered. In addition, any offer of a place may be revoked and enrolment cancelled if the information supplied is incomplete, false or misleading.
