The following information is used to help us evaluate whether you have the necessary qualities to undertake our program. Please note that the selection task is retained as part of official RMIT records. Selection tasks will not be returned to applicants. If you wish to retain a record of your work, please make a copy for yourself.

If you are applying for first year entry please complete sections 4 and 5 only:

SECTION 4: Applicant statement

What is your interest in interior design? (maximum 150 words)

Please provide details of your experience, such as employment, voluntary work, etc., or a description of what you have done, over what periods and how it strengthens your application to this program (maximum 150 words)

SECTION 5: Folio requirements

You must supply evidence of your creativity in the form of a folio containing a variety of your own creative or visual work. The folio should demonstrate your design or artistic interests and creative thinking and show a range of communication and technical skills. Please include a broad range of creative or visual works including art, design or media. You are not required to submit work specifically related to interior design. You should include evidence of how ideas were developed as well as finished works.

Examples of work to include in your folio are hand drawings, paintings, graphic designs, photographs, digital images, models, sculpture, video, scripting, short stories, websites, and/or 2D and 3D Flash animation.

Your folio should use a clear and simple graphic layout, include titles and short descriptions of your work.

Submission instructions:

- Upload your folio as a single PDF (maximum 10 works). Movies and other digital media can be shared via a working URL or MPEG, MOV or AVI file. Each electronic file should be no larger than 10MB.

OR

- Provide a URL to your folio if hosted online. If the URL is to a private page or folder please provide the password.

If you are applying for advanced standing please complete section 6 only:

SECTION 6: Folio

If you have successfully completed at least one full year of tertiary study in architecture, interior design, industrial design or landscape architecture you must complete this section of the selection task.

You must supply evidence of your creative thinking in the form of a folio that contains a variety of your personal work. The folio should demonstrate your creative thinking and/or your particular interests in interior design. It should evidence your conceptual, design, problem solving and technical skills and include evidence of how ideas were developed and decisions were made in relation to finished works.

Examples of work to include in your folio are drawings, maps, paintings, graphic designs, photographs, digital images, models, sculpture, video, scripting, short stories, and/or 2D and 3D Flash animation.

Submission instructions:

- Upload your folio as a single PDF (maximum 10 pages). The file must be no larger than 5MB.
