Selection task for international students

School of Art

This form must be completed by international students only. Australian or New Zealand citizens/Permanent residents of Australia or Permanent Humanitarian Visa holders must apply through RMIT Admissions, www.rmit.edu.au/programs/apply.

SECTION 1: Applicant information

Student / Applicant ID (if known)

Title _____ Family name _____

Given name _____ Date of birth _____

Email _____

SECTION 2: How to apply

1. Check the programs and fees website to ensure this program is offered for your preferred intake.
2. Check the program academic and selection task requirements (see 'International student' tab).
3. Complete this selection task and upload it with your online application.

SECTION 3: Further information

Contact: School of Art
Email: photography@rmit.edu.au

Each selection task will be considered as part of the selection process. The following information is used to help us evaluate whether you have the necessary qualities to undertake our program.

Please note that this selection task is retained as part of official RMIT records. Selection tasks will not be returned to applicants. If you wish to retain a record of your work, please make a copy for yourself.

SECTION 4: Research Proposal

The research proposal is required to demonstrate that the area of enquiry is viable. You have not done the research yet so there is no expectation that you have definitive answers at this stage.

Your proposal should indicate:

- What you consider your project (research) will encompass including why this research project is significant to your practice.
- Why is it worth doing? Why might you be the ideal person to undertake it?

Submit your proposal as a single PDF of 500-700 words along with this selection task.

You should include the following headings:

- Proposed project title
- Research topic outline: a description of your proposed project, including any historical, contemporary and theoretical contexts relevant to your project. What area of the cultural, social or political world does it intersect with?
- Aims: what do you hope to achieve through your project?
- Methods: a description of your proposed research methods (practical or theoretical). Here, if necessary, you may also provide some indication of any specific requirements necessary for your research (this may form as an explanatory paragraph and/or dot points).
- Prior Reading: list key texts that will inform your project. These may be texts that you have drawn from in past work or texts you are yet to read.

SECTION 5: Folio requirements

In order for your selection task to be considered, you must include a folio of work.

- You are required to supply a folio of 10-12 recent photographic works.
(Photographic work should have been taken and edited to completion over the past 18 months).
- Please include titles of works, and where applicable: date, medium and dimensions.
- Your folio should cohere around a topic, rather than an assemblage of unrelated image types.

Submission instructions:

- Attach a single PDF document containing your folio

Or

- Supply a URL to your folio. Provide the username and password (if applicable). Please only provide a link to a site containing work for this application, rather than a generic website.

*Note: If your work is a collaboration, please detail precisely your role, and the role of the collaborator/s (maximum 200 words).

SECTION 6: Privacy notice and applicant declaration

Privacy notice

RMIT University is providing you with this notice because RMIT University is seeking personal information about you in this form to fully and properly assess your application for study and administer any subsequent enrolment in accordance with its policies and procedures.

The information you provide on this form and during enrolment may be made available to the Australian Government, State Agencies and other designated authorities under the ESOS Act 2000, ESOS Regulations 2001 and the National Code.

Information about you can be disclosed without consent where authorised or required by law.

RMIT University's policies require that the information on this form be supplied. Please note that failure to do so, or to supply only part of it, may result in your application being unable to be considered. In addition, any offer of a place may be revoked and enrolment cancelled if the information supplied is incomplete, false or misleading.

For more information about how RMIT University collects, uses, discloses and stores your personal information, see the RMIT Privacy Statement www.rmit.edu.au/privacy.

Applicant declaration

Please read and sign the following applicant certification. This application is not valid unless signed and dated. If you are signing this application on behalf of the applicant, a certified copy of your authority to act on their behalf must be attached.

I declare that to the best of my knowledge, the information supplied in this form and any supporting documentation or materials is correct and complete. I acknowledge that the provision of incorrect or incomplete information or documentation or the withholding of information or documentation relating to my application may result in the cancellation of any offer or enrolment by RMIT University. I confirm that I have read and understood the application and accept the conditions of the application. I further understand that submission of an application to RMIT University does not guarantee the offer of a place. I authorise RMIT University to obtain, where necessary, further information regarding this application from other relevant bodies.

I agree that:

- I have read and understood the privacy statement and accept its conditions.
- I will be bound by the statutes, regulations, standards of conduct and policies of the University as amended from time to time.
- I consent to receiving information electronically from the University.

I certify that:

- The information supplied regarding my application is correct.
- My response to questions and any work submitted as part of my application are my own original work
- The submission of incorrect or incomplete information may result in the withdrawal of any offer and/or cancellation of enrolment at any stage
- It is my responsibility to provide all relevant and required documentary evidence of my qualification/s.

I authorise RMIT University to:

- Obtain further information with respect to my application from other organisations
- Provide information to government, educational, health and other relevant institutions, in the processing of, or in conjunction with, my application.
