Each selection task will be considered as part of the selection process. The following information is used to help us evaluate whether you have the necessary qualities to undertake our program.

Please note that this selection task is retained as part of official RMIT records. Selection tasks will not be returned to applicants. If you wish to retain a record of your work, please make a copy for yourself.

Section 4: Applicant statement

Describe your reasons for wanting to study and what interests you about animation and interactive media. Please include the influences on your work (e.g. film, television, literature, art, design, music, people or culture) (maximum 400 words).

Section 5: Creative work

Provide a PDF of twelve A4 size pages with images of your own work (3D, 2D, photographs, graphics, drawings etc) that best showcase your creativity.

Submission instructions

- Upload your images in a single PDF (maximum size 10MB). Multiple images on a page are acceptable.

Or

- Provide a URL to your images if hosted online (excluding Instagram and Pinterest). Please provide the username and password (if applicable)

Section 6: Visual storytelling task

Create a single PDF 'storyboard' with a sequence of pictures (without words or text) based on one of these four themes:

- Box
- Riot
- Clockwork
- Cold

Please use the format on the right. Your artwork/images are to read from left to right, top to bottom. Tell the story as a comic strip style sequence using no more than twelve images. In your storyboard, use images one to ten to develop the story which may lead to an unexpected, amusing or surprise ending in the last one or two images.

You may use original hand drawn graphic, collage or photographic means to create the images. The aim of this task is to help us evaluate your ability to communicate and illustrate your ideas using visual language.
