SECTION 2: How to apply

1. Check the programs and fees website to ensure this program is offered for your preferred intake.
2. Check the program academic and selection task requirements (see 'International student' tab).
3. Complete this selection task and upload it with your online application.

SECTION 3: Further information

Contact: School of Design
Email: games@rmit.edu.au

Each selection task will be considered as part of the selection process. The following information is used to help us evaluate whether you have the necessary qualities to undertake our program. If further information is needed to make a selection decision, you will be invited to present your folio. The folio presentations will take place online.

Please note that this selection task is retained as part of official RMIT records. Selection tasks will not be returned to applicants. If you wish to retain a record of your work, please make a copy for yourself.

SECTION 4: Applicant statement

Describe your reasons for applying for a degree in games, and briefly describe what you consider to be focus areas (e.g. visual art, narrative, criticism, environments, characters, sound, politics, modding, etc.) (maximum 300 words).

SECTION 5: Folio requirements

In order for your selection task to be considered, you must include a folio of work.

Submit a folio of any creative work, either from your previous studies or personal projects. The work can be from any creative field, in any style or topic - not just games-focused. For example, a collection of artwork, pieces of writing, links to videos, or screenshots of finished games.

Submission instructions:

- One single PDF file (no more than three pages). Embed links into the PDF if you feel they are more appropriate for your work, such as links to videos or playable games (no more than 3 links).
- Under each piece of work in the PDF, provide a short description of your artistic intentions and/or outline your creative process.
- Please ensure you write your full name and RMIT application number in the top right corner of all pages.

SECTION 6: Privacy notice and applicant declaration

Privacy notice

RMIT University is providing you with this notice because RMIT University is seeking personal information about you in this form to fully and properly assess your application for study and administer any subsequent enrolment in accordance with its policies and procedures.

The information you provide on this form and during enrolment may be made available to the Australian Government, State Agencies and other designated authorities under the ESOS Act 2000, ESOS Regulations 2001 and the National Code.

Information about you can be disclosed without consent where authorised or required by law.

RMIT University's policies require that the information on this form be supplied. Please note that failure to do so, or to supply only part of it, may result in your application being unable to be considered. In addition, any offer of a place may be revoked and enrolment cancelled if the information supplied is incomplete, false or misleading.

For more information about how RMIT University collects, uses, discloses and stores your personal information, see the RMIT Privacy Statement www.rmit.edu.au/privacy.

Applicant declaration

Please read and sign the following applicant certification. This application is not valid unless signed and dated. If you are signing this application on behalf of the applicant, a certified copy of your authority to act on their behalf must be attached.

I declare that to the best of my knowledge, the information supplied in this form and any supporting documentation or materials is correct and complete. I acknowledge that the provision of incorrect or incomplete information or documentation or the withholding of information or documentation relating to my application may result in the cancellation of any offer or enrolment by RMIT University. I confirm that I have read and understood the application and accept the conditions of the application. I further understand that submission of an application to RMIT University does not guarantee the offer of a place. I authorise RMIT University to obtain, where necessary, further information regarding this application from other relevant bodies.

I agree that:

- I have read and understood the privacy statement and accept its conditions.
- I will be bound by the statutes, regulations, standards of conduct and policies of the University as amended from time to time.
- I consent to receiving information electronically from the University.

I certify that:

- The information supplied regarding my application is correct.
- My response to questions and any work submitted as part of my application are my own original work
- The submission of incorrect or incomplete information may result in the withdrawal of any offer and/or cancellation of enrolment at any stage
- It is my responsibility to provide all relevant and required documentary evidence of my qualification/s.

I authorise RMIT University to:

- Obtain further information with respect to my application from other organisations
- Provide information to government, educational, health and other relevant institutions, in the processing of, or in conjunction with, my application.
