Section 4: Applicant statements

1. Provide an example of an activity you have undertaken that has depended upon a group of people working in a team. Examples may include team sports, work, a committee membership or participation in activities undertaken in a hobby or special interest group or other (maximum 150 words).

2. Provide a description of any task or project you have carried out yourself without being directly supervised by a teacher, employer, family member or mentor (maximum 150 words).

3. Provide a description of a verbal presentation you have given (on any topic) explaining how you prepared and what support material you used (maximum 150 words).

4. Provide a statement outlining what film or video production hardware and software you have used and why you used that particular hardware and software (maximum 150 words).

Section 5: Storyboard Exercise

A storyboard exercise:

- Create a three-frame story board evoking the word “consequence”. The storyboard should progressively tell a story with a beginning, middle and end, and be driven by your understanding of the word “consequence”. It should also be easily understood by an audience. Imagine each frame as a scene in a film and think along the lines of narrative progression.
- There is to be no dialogue or captioning included in this exercise - it is purely visual narrative.
- This is not a test of your drawing skills, stick figures are fine.
