SECTION 3: Further information

Contact: School of Design
Email: magi@rmit.edu.au

Each selection task will be considered as part of the selection process. The following information is used to help us evaluate whether you have the necessary qualities to undertake our program. If further information is needed to make a selection decision, you will be invited to present your folio. The folio presentations will take place online.

Please note that this selection task is retained as part of official RMIT records. Selection tasks will not be returned to applicants. If you wish to retain a record of your work, please make a copy for yourself.

SECTION 4: Applicant statement

Please provide a short statement about why you wish to study this program, what you hope to achieve in your time at RMIT and where you think it might lead you in terms of a career and/or personal development (maximum 300 words).

SECTION 5: Project outline

Please provide a short outline of a three month, full-time, personal project you may undertake if you were selected for this program. Include a context for the work (similar works, practitioners, formats and technologies), a theme and possible formats (film, game, installation, etc.). It's important that you discuss the content of this project in your proposal.

Please note that this outline will only be used to get an appreciation of your ability to pitch media-based projects, but you will not be expected to fulfil the outline as part of the course.

Feel free to include images that help to represent the context, theme, and/or format.

Submission instructions:

- Upload your project outline as a PDF (maximum file size 5MB).

SECTION 6: Folio requirements

In order for your selection task to be considered, you must include a folio of work.

You must supply a folio comprising up to 30 pieces of your work. The folio should contain a variety of your personal work in art, design, performance, narrative, media or scholarship that demonstrates your interests and creative thinking as well as your conceptual, design, technical and communication skills. Examples of work to include in your folio are drawings, paintings, graphic designs, photographs, motion graphics, digital images, models, sculpture, video, interactive media, games, websites, short writing pieces, and/or 2D and 3D animation. Include links to animated or interactive works if you have been practicing and studying in these areas.

You may include development work as well as finished work.

Submission instructions:

- All images must be no larger than 10MB each and should be formatted as PNG or JPEG files.
- QuickTime movies or play throughs are acceptable; however please ensure the materials play on most common browsers (movies must be compressed using .MP4 or H264 or equivalent compression).
- Apps, executables or games are acceptable however they must be provided for Mac OS or Open GL for the web.
- Online video links (such as on YouTube or Vimeo) are also good ways to present your work or documentation of your works.

Or

- Provide a URL to your folio if hosted online. Please provide the username or password (if applicable).

Annotations

You may provide short captions or annotations below of each work, or groups of works. If your work is a collaboration, please detail clearly and precisely your specific role and the role of the collaborator/s. Note whether the work submitted is a solo work or a group project. (maximum 200 words)
