Set up your account

You can use Outlook 2016 as soon as you enter your account info. On the ribbon, select File > Info and then select the Add Account button. Next, sign in with your preferred email address, or use an account provided by your company or school.

Attach files without searching

Need to attach a picture or a document? Outlook saves you time by keeping a list of your recently used files. Select the Attach File button while composing a new message or meeting invitation, and then select the file you want to attach.

Set up an Outlook group

If you're running Outlook as part of an eligible Office 365 subscription, you can use Groups instead of distribution lists to more effectively communicate and collaborate with members of a team or an organization.

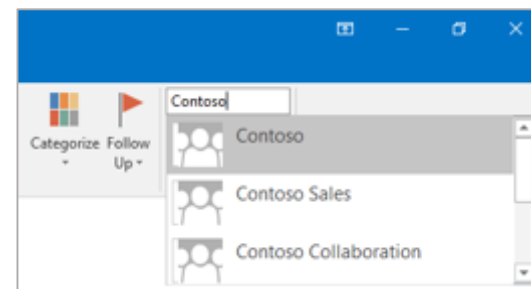

To create a new group in Outlook 2016, On the ribbon, select Home, and then select New Items > Group.

If you don't see this as an option on this menu, contact the administrator of your Microsoft Office 365 subscription for more information.

From the Inbox of any of your Groups, you and the other members can start or join a conversation, create or confirm team events, see a list of members, and get notifications about interactions on any of your shared posts.

To join an existing group, start by searching for its name. On the ribbon, select Home, enter a keyword or phrase into the Search People box, and then select the group you want to join.

Outlook is more than just email

Easily switch between Mail, Calendar, People, and more.

Easy to use Calendar tools and commands

In Calendar view, the ribbon displays everything you need to manage every day, week, month, and year.

Switch your point of view

Select to see how busy your days, weeks, and months are.

Look someone up before scheduling

Type a name and search to verify someone's contact info before setting up a meeting.

Sunshine required?

Glance at the weather forecast to make sure your meeting or event won't be rained out.

The screenshot shows the Outlook Calendar interface. The ribbon at the top includes tabs for File, Home, Send / Receive, Folder, View, and Tell me what you want to do... The Home tab is active, showing options for creating new items (Appointment, Meeting, Items), navigating (Today, Next 7 Days, Day, Work Week, Week, Month, Schedule), and managing calendars (Open Calendar, Calendar Groups, E-mail, Share, Publish, Calendar Online, Permissions). A search bar for people and an address book are also visible. The main calendar area shows a monthly view for October 2015, with a detailed view for the week of October 1st to 3rd. A weather forecast for today (88°F) and tomorrow (93°F) is shown. A search bar for the calendar is also present. The left sidebar shows 'My Calendars' with 'Calendar' and 'Engineering' checked, and 'Team: Tony Krijnen' with 'Tony Krijnen' checked. The bottom status bar shows 'Items: 0'.

Navigate your schedule
While looking at the current day, week, or month, select the Back or Forward arrows to switch the current view.

Search your calendar
Start typing in the Search box to instantly find meetings and appointments.

Look back — or way ahead
Need to look up a past event or want to schedule something in the distant future? Select the small arrows to the left and right of the current month to skip to the day you want.

View shared Calendars
Focus on your own schedule or display any additional Calendars that have been shared with you by other people or Groups.

Create new items in place
Right-click anywhere to create a new meeting, appointment, or other event.

Change your point of view
Select to switch between Mail, Calendar, People, and more.
