Students who have received an '(Urgent) We intend to exclude you from your program for unsatisfactory academic progress' notification from the Academic Registrar and want to appeal against the school's exclusion decision to the University Appeals Committee (UAC).

Submission requirements

In order to make this appeal submission you must:

- have a current enrolment or have been granted a leave of absence in the relevant program
- have received an '(Urgent) We intend to exclude you from your program for unsatisfactory academic progress' notification from the Academic Registrar via your RMIT student email account
- lodge this submission to ensure delivery to the UAC secretariat no later than 20 working days from the date of the above notification (the appeal deadline).

Appeal applications that don't meet all of the above submission requirements can't be accepted and will be deemed automatically ineligible for consideration.

In order to protect University IT systems and the integrity of your appeal submission, the completed appeal form and documentary evidence will only be accepted by email in PDF and JPG formats. If you believe the circumstances of your appeal require submission in alternative formats, please contact the UAC secretariat for advice immediately.

What will happen next? Will I be granted a hearing of the UAC?

In lodging an appeal, you're requesting a hearing of the UAC to consider your appeal against the school's decision to exclude you from your program.

Following receipt of a complete and eligible appeal submission the Academic Registrar (or nominee) will, within 20 working days, decide whether your application satisfies the ground/s of appeal you selected on page 2 of this form.

Where the eligibility criteria have been deemed:

- (a) to have been met – your school will be invited to review your appeal submission together with your academic history. If your school wishes to proceed with the exclusion decision, a hearing of the UAC will be arranged and we will advise you of the date and time accordingly.
- (b) to not have been met – your request for a hearing will be denied and we will advise you accordingly. This communication will explain the reasons for the determination and also advise you of your right to seek an external review of the decision.

Communication

Your RMIT student email account will be used for correspondence related to your appeal.
