

Appeals against misconduct

Senior officers and the Student Conduct Board are authorised to penalise students for misconduct. The appeal process allows students to appeal against the decision of misconduct and/or the penalty.

Important information

A complete appeal must include:

- information about whether your appeal is against the decision of misconduct, or the penalty, or both
- the grounds for your appeal
- the evidence in support of your appeal.

You must submit your appeal within 20 working days of the date of the written advice of the senior officer or Student Conduct Board. Appeals received after 20 working days will not be considered.

How you will be contacted

The University will communicate via your student email account and the mailing address you provided when you enrolled.

If you recently changed your mailing address you must update your details in myRMIT. Go to www.rmit.edu.au/myrmit and select the Enrolment Online link. Select the My student record button and under Personal details select Home address or Mailing address to update your information. To update any telephone numbers select Mobile phone.

Types of appeal

An appeal against the decision of misconduct means that you do not agree with the decision of the senior officer or Student Conduct Board that you committed misconduct.

An appeal against the penalty means that you acknowledge that you committed misconduct but you do not agree with the penalty you received from the senior officer or Student Conduct Board for the misconduct.

What happens after submission of an appeal

You will be sent an email confirming that your appeal has been received. You may be asked to make changes to your appeal if it is incomplete, for example, if you have not identified the grounds of your appeal.

Once complete, your appeal will be considered by the Student Conduct Appeals Committee within 30 working days.

You will receive information about the committee at least 10 working days before the hearing. This information will include:

- the date, time and location of the hearing
- details of the membership and powers of the committee
- an explanation of your rights.
