

Gama-dji Orientation

Gama-dji Orientation helps you get off to a great start at RMIT University!

Gama-dji, pronounced “Gama-gee”, means emerge in the local Woi Wurrung and Boon Wurrung language of the Kulin Nations.

Ngarara Willim have developed a specific Orientation Program designed to provide Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students the opportunity to become familiar with RMIT, support staff, Ngarara Willim and other commencing and continuing students.

It's to give you a head start and is a great way to meet other students, learn study skills, explore your culture and get to know RMIT and Melbourne.

We run Gama-dji a week before the RMIT University Orientation to ensure you will be comfortable and less stressed for the beginning of your academic journey and your experience with us here at RMIT and Ngarara will be positive.

By attending you will know:

- That your enrolment is finalised
- That you have a tutor who will be able to help you from week 1
- That you are connected to wifi, and know how to use, MyRMIT and Canvas
- That you can log into your emails
- That you know where classes are and
- That you know how to budget for the semester
- You know where to get help when you need it!

Ngarara Willim staff will be in contact with you once are enrolled to confirm your attendance.
