

Reconciliation Action Plan

one year on

RMIT RAP Artwork by Carly Michelle Donovan – Wiradjuri and Dunghutti

Top 5 achievements since the RAP launched:

- 1 RMIT's colleges and portfolios develop individual Indigenous Engagement Plans to address the six RAP Action Areas.
- 2 Ngarara Place Indigenous garden wins the Victorian Premier's Design Award for best Design Strategy, as a significant Indigenous place maker in Melbourne.
- 3 RMIT Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Plan launched.
- 4 The University has become a member of Supply Nation – the Australian leader in supplier diversity. Established in 2009, Supply Nation connects its membership of Australia's leading brands, government and organisations with Indigenous businesses across the country.
- 5 RMIT's first Aboriginal Deputy Pro Vice-Chancellor – Indigenous Education and Engagement, Professor Mark McMillan, appointed.

What are you doing to include RAP initiatives and values in your work at RMIT?

