

Implementing good research data management across an institution involves the cooperation of people in various roles. This diagram sets out key responsibilities of researchers and research support staff. For more information see the Research Data Management Library Guide. This is a Supporting Document of Research Data Management Process.
 Approved: 25 September 2016, Executive Director, Research Office.