SECTION 3: Further information

Contact: School of Design

Email: pg.communication.design@rmit.edu.au

SECTION 4: Applicant submission

The following information is used to help us evaluate whether you have the necessary qualities to undertake this program.

1. Statement (250 words)

Please provide a statement outlining your perspective of the current state of communication design and the future of the discipline. To prepare this statement, please read, and use as a point of departure, Norman Potter's essay 'What is a designer?' available at hyphenpress.co.uk/samples/17/WIAD_sample.pdf. You may find it helpful to consider the following questions: Are Potter's ideas still relevant today? If so, which of his ideas are still relevant, and how? Or which of his ideas are outdated, and why? What does this say about the future of communication design?

2. Work experience

Please provide details of any relevant experience including employment, voluntary work, etc., or a description of what you have done, over what periods and how it strengthens your application to this program (maximum 250 words).

SECTION 5: Folio requirements

You must submit a folio with this selection task.

Your folio must comprise 15 to 30 pieces of your own work and should be communication design focused, although it may contain a variety of work including, art, design or media work that demonstrates the breadth of your interests and expertise, as well as your conceptual and technical skills. For example, your folio may include: drawings, paintings, graphic design, photographs, motion graphics, digital images, models, sculpture, video, interactive media, games, websites, short writing pieces, and/or 2D and 3D animation.

You may also include development work as well as finished work. We recommend you explain each work, to help the selection officer understand the work's purpose and background.

If your work is a collaboration please detail precisely your role and the role of the collaborator/s.

Folio submission instructions:

- Upload: You can upload this form as a supporting document in the online portal and submit your folio by supplying links to your creative work on YouTube or other websites.

- Email: You can submit this form and your folio by email to pg.communication.design@rmit.edu.au. The email is to be titled: Masters of Communication Design Application. Applicants must include their RMIT student or applicant ID number in the email.

Electronic media specifications:

- All digital media should be Mac formatted (OSX) as we cannot guarantee that we will be able to access PC or Linux formatted files.
- Images must collated in a single PDF (maximum file size 10MB).
- Flash animation and Quicktime movies are all accepted, however, please ensure that the files are built or exported and open independently of the creator program (maximum file size 10MB).
- Work can be submitted through online access via YouTube or other websites. Please ensure all links are correct.
- DO NOT SEND .exe files, Windows Media Player or RealPlayer files.
