Declaration

I understand and accept that:

- I. The care and accommodation arrangements approved on this form are for the period until the student turns 18 years old and cannot be changed without prior consent from RMIT International Compliance;
- II. RMIT may insist on a change of welfare arrangements:
 - i. Failure on the part of the caregiver or accommodation provider to provide appropriate services to the student.
 - ii. Dishonest or inappropriate behaviour by the caregiver or accommodation provider.
- III. RMIT may withdraw the Confirmation of Appropriate Accommodation and Welfare (CAAW) for the student if the student does not maintain the arrangements agreed upon in this form. Withdrawal of a CAAW may result in cancellation of a student visa.
- IV. I authorise RMIT to check my child's visa conditions and status using the Department of Home Affairs Visa Electronic Verification Online (VEVO) system.
- V. Where the student is transferring from another provider, the student must maintain their current welfare arrangements, have alternative arrangements put in place or return to their home country until the new approved welfare arrangements take place.
