Open Day at RMIT Brunswick

RMIT’s Brunswick campus is a creative centre of design, known for its facilities and its real-world studio and workshop learning spaces.

The campus allows students to experiment with fashion and textile design in an urban environment while learning industry best practice.

Students examine traditional techniques and investigate new and progressive ideas to advance their own practices in the areas of textile design, fashion design and technology, fashion merchandising, product development, footwear design and graphic design.

The Brunswick campus also provides a vibrant home for Bachelor of Education and Certificate IV in Education Support students.

RMIT campuses

As well as Brunswick, RMIT University has Melbourne campuses in the city and Bundoora, and two in Vietnam – Ho Chi Minh City and Hanoi.

City

Covering architecture, business, design, engineering, media and communications, science and social science.

Bundoora

Focusing on health, medical science, education and engineering.

Free buses between RMIT campuses

Departing every half hour from 10.30am until 4.30pm, from Russell Street (City) to Building 511 car park (Brunswick).

Route: City » Brunswick » City

Travel time approx 15 minutes.

Check Public Transport Victoria website for information on public transport timetables and routes.
