

Executive Master of Business Administration

2019
Postgraduate

With Australia's most established design thinking component, the RMIT Executive MBA program provides you with innovative tools to design your own future in the world of senior business.

This executive-level program is suited to working professionals seeking a highly flexible learning experience that fosters leadership, strategic thinking and corporate responsibility.

Graduates emerge with a sustainable suite of executive consulting and advanced design-thinking methodology skills to drive change, disrupt paradigms and embrace the future.

Learning and teaching

The program is structured to enrich your experience through:

- innovative modes of delivery
- contemporary approaches relating to corporate leadership and consulting
- valuable networking opportunities.

Students will explore a complex problem, test and evaluate potential solutions with industry and community stakeholders.

The program focuses on practical aspects of business leadership with an emphasis on corporate decision-making in an international setting. RMIT students recently demonstrated their skills with a first prize win at the International Graduate Competition in Canada.

Michelle Redfern

"An incredibly stimulating, challenging journey. I've awakened my creative self, built upon my intellectual capabilities, made good friends who are now collaborators and started two new enterprises."

International opportunities

Executive MBA (EMBA) students are offered a range of practical opportunities such as:

- Study tours in Europe including the ESADE Business and Law School, RMIT University in Barcelona; South East Asia, RMIT (Vietnam); Robert H. Smith School of Business (USA); Ted Rogers School of Management (Canada); and Aarhus University (Denmark)
- Student Exchange
- Study Abroad
- Studying part or all of the program at RMIT's Vietnam campus
- ACICIS Business Professional Practicum
- Global Entrepreneurship and Internship Program (GEIP)

Industry connections

The EMBA is supported by a strong advisory board that helps steer curriculum development to ensure that graduates are work-ready and prepared to take up challenging positions within the rapidly changing landscape of business management. The Program Advisory Board is made up of members from KPMG, BMW, Ethical Investment Services, Greencap, and from boutique consultancy firms such as Advantage Point Business Advisors.

Work-connected and industry-relevant opportunities include:

- participating in professional development series forums
- choosing a hands-on executive consulting assignment with organisations such as PWC, Capgemini and KPMG in the Executive Consulting course
- Business Consulting (Fastrack Innovation Program)
- Business Skills for Start Ups (Elective)

 Core course
 Elective

Your EMBA journey will start by undertaking functional courses that introduce business concepts, followed by courses that draw upon learning activities, experiences and knowledge to focus on strategy development. The courses in the latter part of the program allow you to explore a complex problem, test and evaluate potential solutions with industry and community stakeholders.

Professional recognition

RMIT's EMBA is accredited with the European Foundation for Management Development Programme Accreditation System (EPAS), a prestigious global endorsement awarded to only four other MBA programs in Australia.

Membership

Students and graduates of the program are eligible to apply for membership of the Institute of Managers and Leaders (IML). Membership offers numerous resources to assist with your future career development.

Career

Throughout the EMBA you will explore innovative problem-solving techniques, discover the strength of collaboration and be encouraged to think deeply and analytically about the global future. Expect to undergo a transformation and begin to develop the skills and approaches undertaken by 21st century senior business leaders. As an RMIT EMBA graduate, you will have the tools to design your own future. You will see the breadth of possibilities that exist in the world of senior business, and will discover the leader in yourself.
