This selection task and any supplementary documentation will become the property of RMIT University and will not be returned. The following information is used to help us evaluate whether you have the necessary qualities to undertake this program.

SECTION 4: Applicant statement

Please outline and discuss the areas of fashion design and types of practice specialisations you would like to investigate in this program. Explain the context of fashion practice you would like to work in relating this to your current career goals, research interests in fashion design and how this program will help you achieve these.

You may also wish to include how your work experience and previous studies has informed your research and practice interests.

Maximum 300 words

Please provide details of academic achievements and professional experience including any work experience you are currently undertaking (maximum 150 words)

SECTION 5: Folio requirements

In order for your selection task to be considered, you must include a folio of work

You must supply a folio. We recommend your folio consists of no more than 15 pieces of work. Your folio should contain pieces from your undergraduate studies, including any major graduating projects or collections produced and professional projects undertaken covered in detail. Your folio should be a combination of images, drawings, sketches, paintings, photographs or films showing the research and design experimentation that has led to the finalised design work. It should reflect your design, problem solving and technical skills with a focus on the following:

- evidence of research and conceptual analysis
- evidence of design process
- evidence of sustained written work
- finished garments or prototypes in physical or documented form
- publications, photographs, films or other forms of fashion communication

Your folio should include evidence of how ideas were developed as well as finished work. Include work that shows how the documentation has informed your design and research as well as the types of design processes you work with. Please include any other complimentary projects that might be from other discipline areas that also indicate the types of design specialisations you are interested in.

Submission instructions:

- Upload your folio as a single PDF (maximum size 10MB)

OR

- Provide a URL to your folio (please provide the password if applicable). NB: All images must be contained and visible on one webpage.

Under each image provide a brief explanation, including the purpose and background of the work (maximum 50 words).

SECTION 6: Privacy notice and applicant declaration

Privacy notice

RMIT University is providing you with this notice because RMIT University is seeking personal information about you in this form to fully and properly assess your application for study and administer any subsequent enrolment in accordance with its policies and procedures.

The information you provide on this form and during enrolment may be made available to the Australian Government, State Agencies and other designated authorities under the ESOS Act 2000, ESOS Regulations 2001 and the National Code.

Information about you can be disclosed without consent where authorised or required by law.

RMIT University's policies require that the information on this form be supplied. Please note that failure to do so, or to supply only part of it, may result in your application being unable to be considered. In addition, any offer of a place may be revoked and enrolment cancelled if the information supplied is incomplete, false or misleading.

For more information about how RMIT University collects, uses, discloses and stores your personal information, see the RMIT Privacy Statement www.rmit.edu.au/privacy.
