

ALIA Prize (Graduate Diploma)

Prize Name	ALIA Prize (Graduate Diploma)
Prize Value	$450 value
Prize Sponsor	Australian Library and Information Association (ALIA)
Prize Description	One year's personal membership which includes a subscription to the Association's news magazine INCITE, a one year subscription to the Journal of the Australian Library and Information Association (JALIA) online, a discount (to the value of $75) towards an ALIA Training course; and an award certificate.

Eligibility

This prize is awarded to the graduate in the Graduate Diploma Information Management with the highest GPA.

Selection Criteria

- Students in undergraduate and postgraduate programs have completed at least half the requisite credit points for the prize's nominated program through their study at RMIT.
- Students who transfer from another university must complete 50% or more of the total credit points of the program at RMIT
- Students must have completed a minimum of 6 courses within their final year of the program.
- In cases where student's program GPA's are identical, a student's exit velocity or final term GPA will be used as a method for determining the prize recipient.
- In cases where prize candidates have identical program GPA and final term GPA's an average of their numeric grades will be used to distinguish the prize recipient.
- In borderline cases where principal 1, 2 and 3 are identical, the prize will be shared between recipients.

Timeline

- The prize recipient will be notified in April / May and invited to attend the Prize Ceremony event to be held in May 2020.
- For monetary prizes, prize recipients will be paid into their nominated bank account before the end of June 2020.